The report considers with care the rela-

re-establish public order, except in districts where the revolutionary forces do not wish to receive the treaty. There is to be a general amnesty and an abolition of extraordinary war contributions and imposts. The supremacy of civil law is to be established. An election for members of congress is to be held, which the government guarantees shall be fair and pure, and the guarantees shall be fair and pure, and the congress elected is to consider three impor-tant subjects, mainly the Panama canal negotiations, reforms of the electoral system and the reform of the monetary sys-

WILL APPEAL. Decision Announced by the Postmaster General.

Postmaster General Payne has announced that the cases of the "Official Guide of the Railways" and the "Monthly Railway List," which have been decided adversely to the Post Office Department by the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, will of Appeals of the District of Columbia, will be appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States. The question in each case is the right of the publication to pass in the mails at the subsidized second-class rate. The department holds that, under the law, they are subject to the third-class rate. The Postmaster General also stated that there will be no change in the policy of the department to correct, as far as existing law will permit, the abuses of the favored second-class postage rate.
